"I stand with the Shoals Chamber and the plan they have mapped out to meet the needs of our changing business community and its workers. They are facing the challenge of responsible economic development with an exciting and innovative plan to advance our community into the next phase of economic growth. It will take all of us working together, both public and private sectors, each holding one another accountable, to change the Shoals for the better. I sincerely ask you to join me as we work to create a greater Shoals."
